

Business Events FALL 2015

Selling Your Product or Service to the Federal Government

Wednesday October 7th at 9:30 am
Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Presented by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), participants will learn how to register in the Federal government's SAM/DSBS system to sell their products or services to the government.

Small Business Loan Certifications

Wednesday October 21st at 9:30 am
Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Presented by the U.S. SBA, participants will learn how to become certified for the Federal governments small business loan program.

Women Owned Small Business Certification by the SBA

Wednesday November 4th at 9:30 am
Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Presented by the U.S. SBA, participants will learn how to be certified for small business loans from the Federal government.

Business Law Day

Tuesday November 10th at 2:30 pm
Shiley Special Events Suite

Working in partnership with Thomas Jefferson School of Law, attorneys will be present to offer advice to prospective and current business owners, in areas of business law such as patents and IP.

HubZone Certification for Businesses

Wednesday November 18th at 9:30 am
Mary Hollis Clark Conference Center

Presented by the U.S. SBA, participants will learn about the advantages of locating a small business in an Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) Zone and how to become certified by the U.S. government to open a business in a HubZone.